Advertising History from the 1960s to Today* Samuel Fulmer, 2019-04-18 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2015 in the subject Communications Public Relations Advertising Marketing Social Media grade 2 University of Salzburg language English abstract This thesis will mainly look at two fast food restaurants McDonald s and Burger King and will look at several advertisements from the 1960s to today It will analyze the advertisements in terms of linguistic structures and will look at how advertisements have developed over the decades They are in our everyday life on our phones when we look for a new app to install on television while watching our favorite show on our notebooks when we check our emails or even when we walk down the street to get our morning coffee advertisements are everywhere and one cannot escape or ignore them Yet as much as pop ups billboards and commercial breaks crowd our lives in a way they do not bother us at all and that is the cunning beauty of advertising It should get the point across making us aware of something telling us about a new product convincing us to purchase an item by subtly trying to persuade us that we need it when in reality we do not whatever it is Advertisements can come in many forms and genres they can be a poem they can be a little short story a catchy jingle or just a picture whatever form they might take the message of persuading the consumer to buy the advertised product makes this accumulation of genres a genre in itself It moreover is important to mention that whos and wheres of advertising are factors that have to be taken into consideration when drafting an advertisement for a product What is the product and who could benefit from it Where should the advertisement to the product appear so it can be easily seen by the target group How can the features of the product be made easy to read and easy to understand and furthermore and more importantly urge the target group to purchase it here is where language comes into play      Animal Rights/Human Rights David

Nibert,2002-05-28 This accessible and cutting edge work offers a new look at the history of western civilization one that brings into focus the interrelated suffering of oppressed humans and other animals Nibert argues persuasively that throughout history the exploitation of other animals has gone hand in hand with the oppression of women people of color and other oppressed groups He maintains that the oppression both of humans and of other species of animals is inextricably tangled within the structure of social arrangements Nibert asserts that human use and mistreatment of other animals are not natural and do little to further the human condition Nibert s analysis emphasizes the economic and elite driven character of prejudice discrimination and institutionalized repression of humans and other animals His examination of the economic entanglements of the oppression of human and other animals is supplemented with an analysis of ideological forces and the use of state power in this sociological expose of the grotesque uses of the oppressed past and present Nibert suggests that the liberation of devalued groups of humans is unlikely in a world that uses other animals as fodder for the continual growth and expansion of transnational corporations and conversely that animal liberation cannot take place when humans continue to be exploited and oppressed     The Book Kevin Heckman,2001-06     California.
