 Prof. Lynne Haney, 2022-05-10 A profound portrait of the hidden injustices that trap fathers in a cycle of punishment and debt
 In the first study of its kind sociologist Lynne Haney travels into state institutions across the country to document the experiences of the millions of fathers cycling through the criminal justice and child support systems Prisons of Debt shows how these systems work together to create complex entanglements rather than piling up in men's lives these entanglements form feedback loops of disadvantage The prison child support pipeline flows in both directions deepening parents debt and criminal justice involvement Through moving accounts of men struggling to be fathers from behind prison walls and under the weight of support debt Prisons of Debt exposes how the criminalization of child support undermines the most essential of familial relationships Haney argues that these state systems can end up producing exactly the kind of parent they fear and loathe bitter unreliable and cyclical fathers Based on observations of 1 200 child support cases and interviews with 145 indebted fathers in New York California and Florida Prisons of Debt reveals the actual practices of child support adjudication and enforcement alongside the lived realities of fathers trapped in those systems The result is a rigorously documented
