Bunker Diary:

The Bunker Diary Kevin Brooks, 2019-08-06 I can't believe I fell for it It was still dark when I woke up this morning As soon as my eyes opened I knew where I was A low ceilinged rectangular building made entirely of whitewashed concrete There are six little rooms along the main corridor There are no windows No doors The elevator is the only way in or out What's he going to do to me What am I going to do People are really quite simple and they have simple needs Food water light space privacy Maybe a small measure of dignity A bit of freedom What happens when someone simply takes all that away

Bunker Diary Kevin Brooks, 2016-03-18 Bunker Diary Kevin Brooks, 2015-06-09 Non cercare una ragione Cerca una via d'uscita The Bunker Diary Kevin M. Brooks, 2015 The Microeconomic Mode Jane K. Elliott, 2018-06-26 From The Road to Game of Thrones across works as seemingly different as Gone Girl and Saw literature film and television have become obsessed with the intersection of survival and choice When the trapped rock climber hero of 127 Hours is confronted with self amputation or death it is only a particularly blunt example of an omnipresent set up In real life settings or fantastical games protagonists find themselves confronting extreme scenarios with life or death consequences forced to make torturous either/or choices in stripped down brutally stark environments Jane Elliott identifies and analyzes this new and distinctive aesthetic phenomenon which she calls the microeconomic mode Through close readings of its narratives tropes and concepts she traces the implicit theoretical and political claims conveyed by this combination of abstraction and extremity In the microeconomic mode humans isolated from any forms of social organization operate within a mini economy of costs and benefits gains and losses measured in the currency of life Elliott reads the key concepts that emerge from this aesthetic life interest sovereign capture and binary life in relation to biopolitics and natural law theory becoming and the control society and primitive accumulation in racial capitalism The microeconomic mode interrogates the destruction of the liberal political subject but what it leaves in its place is as disturbing as it is radically new Going beyond the question of neoliberalism in literature The Microeconomic Mode combines revelatory close readings of key literary and popular texts with significant theoretical interventions to identify how an aesthetics of choice has reshaped our contemporary understanding of what it means to be human The Bunker Diary, 1941-1943 Paul Delmont Bunker, 1941 Army officer The diary tells of Bunker's experiences as a prisoner of war after the fall of Corregidor as well as the actions preceding the siege of Corregidor Reading and Writing Pathways through Children's and Young Adult Literature Alicia

Curtin, 2022-07-29 This thought provoking book will provide masters students teachers and researchers with a toolkit and theoretical framework for teaching literacy through children's literature It features innovative ideas for developing student and teacher experiences with literature and popular culture texts in the classroom providing practical examples and teaching aids throughout Taking a collaborative approach Curtin explores how teachers and learners can engage with literature and its authors for the development of literacy in classroom practice Connecting reader and writer identities and worlds through interviews with and suggested classroom activities from authors themselves this text combines author teacher and learner perspectives in the development of creative pedagogies that extend understandings of literacy beyond reading writing and text Exploring fairy tales comic books and graphic novels children living in literature i e texts which portray children their lives and experiences popular culture young adult fiction and non fiction and digital texts such as blogs etc this text develops a sociocultural understanding of literacy as a lived and contextually dependent practice where meaning is derived through relationships between people settings and culture Different contexts for literacy are explored including reading and writing strategically to learn about literacy and literature widely for personal purposes and deeply to transform understanding Short 2011 This text will be an invaluable resource for teachers researchers or anyone interested in reading and writing stories The author interviews will also be of particular interest to older learners themselves as a way to develop their understanding of their own reading and writing practices Pedagogies can be adapted to any age group ranging from the early years to young adult

United States Army in WWII - the Pacific - the Fall of the Philippines Professor Louis Morton,2014-08-15 Includes 11 tables 25 maps and 71 illustrations The soldier reading these pages would do well to reflect on the wisdom of the statement exhibited in a Japanese shrine Woe unto him who has not tasted defeat Victory too often leads to overconfidence and erases the memory of mistakes Defeat brings into sharp focus the causes that led to failure and provides a fruitful field of study for those soldiers and laymen who seek in the past lessons for the future The statesman and the unformed citizen reading these pages will realize that our military means as well as our estimates and plans must always be in balance with our long range national policy This lesson signposted by the Battle of Manila Bay the Treaty of Paris signed in December 1898 when we decided to keep the Philippines the Washington Conference of 1921 22 and the Manchurian Crisis of 1931 we ignored before Pearl Harbor The result was defeat on the field of battle and the loss of the Philippine Islands Growing Sideways in Twenty-first Century British Culture Anne Malewski,2021-12-15 This volume examines changing boundaries between childhood and adulthood in British society and culture at the beginning of the twenty first century where these age boundaries are widely debated policed and contested to investigate alternatives to conventional ideas of growing up Building on observations especially in children s literature criticism that human growth is shaped by a grand narrative that privileges adulthood and on terminologies of non normative growth particularly in queer theory this monograph develops growing sideways as a concept that queers this grand narrative by destabilising childhood and adulthood and the boundaries between them The concept is refined through close readings of twenty first century British children s literature television series film and participatory events troubling age boundaries via specific strategies in three conceptual areas appearance play and space Exploring power structures around age and gender this monograph traces growing sideways as a distinct and important alternative discourse of human growth Fractures and Disruptions in Children's Literature Maria Teresa Cortez,Sandie Mourão,Ana Margarida Ramos,2017-11-06 In March 2015 the eleventh edition of The Child and the Book

Conference was organized at the University of Aveiro in Portugal The conference was related to the theme of fracture and disruption in children s and young adult literature This publication provides not only a synthesis of the main reflections but also a starting point for understanding the issues of fracture and disruption within children s and young adult literature The volume gathers texts from consolidated figures within the field of research in Children s Literature as well as contributions from junior researchers creating bridges and dialogue between both generations and critical and theoretical approaches It includes chapters on violence war sexuality and politics discussion around formal stylistic perspectives analysis of fringe works and hybrid literary forms as well as the issue of audience and the crossover universe Special reference should be given to the inclusion of contributions from lesser known countries and literatures such as Brazil Italy Norway Poland and Portugal The volume will be of interest to children s literature specialists graduate and post graduate students librarians and mediators of reading
