The Man Who Broke Capitalism David Gelles, 2022-05-31 New York Times Bestseller New York Times reporter and Corner Office columnist David Gelles reveals legendary GE CEO Jack Welch to be the root of all that's wrong with capitalism today and offers advice on how we might right those wrongs In 1981 Jack Welch took over General Electric and quickly rose to fame as the first celebrity CEO He golfed with presidents mingled with movie stars and was idolized for growing GE into the most valuable company in the world But Welch's achievements didn't stem from some greater intelligence or business prowess Rather they were the result of a sustained effort to push GE's stock price ever higher often at the expense of workers consumers and innovation In this captivating revelatory book David Gelles argues that Welch single handedly ushered in a new cutthroat era of American capitalism that continues to this day Gelles chronicles Welch's campaign to vaporize hundreds of thousands of jobs in a bid to boost profits eviscerating the country's manufacturing base and destabilizing the middle class Welch's obsession with downsizing he eliminated 10% of employees every year fundamentally altered GE and inspired generations of imitators who have employed his strategies at other companies around the globe In his day Welch was corporate America's leading proponent of mergers and acquisitions using deals to gobble up competitors and giving rise to an economy that is more concentrated and less dynamic And Welch pioneered the dark arts of financialization transforming GE from an admired industrial manufacturer into what was effectively an unregulated bank The finance business was hugely profitable in the short term and helped Welch keep GE's stock price ticking up But ultimately financialization undermined GE and dozens of other Fortune 500 companies Gelles shows how Welch's celebrated emphasis on increasing shareholder value by any means necessary layoffs outsourcing offshoring acquisitions and buybacks to name but a few tactics became the norm in American business generally He demonstrates how that approach has led to the greatest socioeconomic inequality since the Great Depression and harmed many of the very companies that have embraced it And he shows how a generation of Welch acolytes radically transformed companies like Boeing Home Depot Kraft Heinz and more Finally Gelles chronicles the change that is now afoot in corporate America highlighting companies and leaders who have abandoned Welchism and are proving that it is still possible to excel in the business world without destroying livelihoods gutting communities and spurning regulation Productivity In

Singapore's Retail And Food Services Sectors: Contemporary Issues Mun Heng Toh, Shandre M

Thangavelu, 2016-11-25 The Retail and Food Services sectors play an important role in Singapore They add to the vibrancy of the economy and contribute to the social well being of Singaporeans At the same time they are often highlighted and scrutinised for their low productivity performance and high reliance on manpower There is to date a lack of local literature that addresses the issues faced by the two sectors at the enterprise and worker levels This timely book includes major topics in services productivity in the Singapore context with emphasis on Retail and Food Services Topics covered include the key productivity levers of the services sectors holistic productivity measurement framework effective entrepreneurship manpower management promotion by social media marketing costing process and accounting sophistication These areas are explored through literature reviews and in depth interviews with companies and consumers The chapters also include recommendations for policy makers and industry stakeholders Written in a simple and accessible manner this book will serve as an insightful guide to researchers policy makers industry practitioners and enterprises and those who are keen to learn from the Singapore experience Mergers, Acquisitions, and Other Restructuring Activities Donald DePamphilis, 2021-09-26
