Bus Safety Lesson Plans For Middle School:

Getting Around Town: M. Sherril Moon, Emily M. Luedtke, Elizabeth Halloran-Tornquist, 2010-01-01 Transition experts agree that learning to get around the community is one of the essential components of all school programs for students with disabilities regardless of the type or degree of disability. By teaching mobility skills across several areas and its impact for students to learn in the domestic work social self determination and recreation domains educators families and older students have a starting point for including these goals in individualized education programs (IEP). This guide provides examples of possible IEP goals and field tested lesson plans for individual students or entire classes across all age and grade levels.
