Human Trafficking Natividad Gutiérrez Chong,Jenny B Clark,2017-09-13 In the post Cold War era economic globalization has resulted in the buying and selling of human beings Poverty social instability lawlessness gender biases and ethnic hostility have entrapped millions in the world of modern day slavery with the result that human trafficking is one of the fastest growing criminal industries in the world Every year men women and children from across the globe are transported within or across borders for the purpose of forced labor and sexual exploitation Despite the plethora of journalistic articles written on human trafficking there is a need for more rigorous academic analysis of the phenomenon. Although groups from many different ideologies have embraced policies to end human trafficking there are still many gaps and unanswered questions particularly with regard to the amount of and nature of the phenomenon. This book provides an insight into the complexity of human trafficking by addressing both how the scope of globalization impacts the sex industry and forced labor and how vulnerability is a growing cause of human trafficking affecting traditional diasporic and migratory patterns. This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Intercultural Studies. The Unlawful Society Paul Battersby, 2014-08-05 Exploring the dynamics of law making in a world where the pace of technological change is outstripping our capacity to capture new forms of transnational crime this book uses the innovative concept of unlawfulness to examine the crimes of the global overworld forming a unique analysis of global order in the twenty first century. Research Handbook on Unilateral and Extraterritorial Sanctions Beaucillon, Charlotte, 2021-08-27 Providing a unique analytical framework to capture a diverse fragmented and highly evolving practice the Research Handbook on Unilateral and Extraterritorial Sanctions is the key original reference work covering how sanctions have indisputably become central instruments of foreign policy. This discerning Research Handbook combines a series of case studies and cross cutting analyses. It reflects the levers and evolution of international law and practice in the field as well as covering important topics over multiple disciplines particularly in international law and international relations. Featuring diverse contributions from a selection of esteemed scholars the Research Handbook's chapters provide an unprecedented analysis of the evolution of diplomatic legal and business practices and tackle topical legal issues arising from unilateral and extraterritorial sanctions. Offering a unique panorama of contemporary practice this 360 degree study will be of interest to legal academics and their students as well as practitioners in both the public and private sectors.

Balochistan and the Mélange of Violence Seema Khan, 2023-11-10 This book presents a comprehensive analysis of the intricate security situation prevailing in Balochistan. It explores and establishes correlations between the internal structural vulnerabilities and fault lines of the Pakistani state with the external influences exerted on the region. Employing a rigorous examination of both primary and secondary data the volume critically examines the multifaceted nature of organised violence in Balochistan. In addition to separatist movements the presence of religious militancy and cross border terrorism is thoroughly examined. The book delves into the external involvement of regional and global powers in the intricate tapestry of violence within Balochistan thereby shedding light on the emerging geopolitical landscape and the corresponding power dynamics in the region. It also analyses how the implementation of large scale developmental initiatives particularly facilitated by China under the auspices of the China Pakistan Economic Corridor CPEC has elevated the geostrategic significance of Balochistan while simultaneously entangling it in the vortex of regional power politics. This volume will be of interest to scholars and researchers specializing in geopolitics International Relations and South Asian studies.
