There is a plethora of gray area when it comes to one's perspective. Sometimes there is no right or wrong. There are multiple perspectives that are acceptable. Anxiety and depression are highly controversial subjects because one cannot act in a way that everyone will accept or think is absolute. Life is very interesting and can shatter your soul into a thousand pieces one day or can have you feeling so confident in yourself that you are genuinely happy and believe you can do anything. Toxic work environments are abundant in America, and there is no sign of this becoming resolved. Why? Because CREAM (Cash Rules Everything Around Me) is bullshit, especially when the leadership of these companies don't give a fuck and just want to have money or power or sometimes both. Let's not forget about personal relationships, either. These are just as important for our mental health. My experiences in life are a fucking roller coaster of emotions that run deep. Am I right? Am I wrong? There is no definitive answer. There is only perspective. And everyone has one. Finding Peace Here and Now Eric A. Clayton, 2025-05-06

These days everyone is looking for peace. But too often we look in all the wrong places. In Finding Peace Here and Now, award-winning Catholic author Eric A. Clayton shows readers that we should be looking inside ourselves. He reveals that peace starts within by discovering and embracing who we are meant to be in God. Using Saint Ignatius of Loyola as a guide, Clayton offers stories, meditations, spiritual reflections, and practical tools to lead us along a path of inner peace that we can then trace outward so we can bring peace to other people and challenging situations. This book will resonate with readers who are familiar with the Ignatian Spiritual Exercises, as well as those learning about them for the first time. In the end, readers will not only navigate their own personal journey to inner peace and a love of self, but also discover how those journeys are tied to better loving and serving neighbors and working for global justice all for the greater glory of God
