Academic Professionalism In Law Enforcement Current Issues In Criminal Justice:

Academic Professionalism in Law Enforcement Bernadette Jones Palombo,1995 African Americans and the Criminal Justice System Marvin D. Free,1996 Twenty nine collected essays represent a critical history of Shakespeare s play as text and as theater beginning with Samuel Johnson in 1765 and ending with a review of the Royal Shakespeare Company production in 1991 The criticism centers on three aspects of the play the love friendship debate The Politics of Community Policing Wilson Edward Reed,2013-06-17 First published in 1999 As with the other volumes in this series readers will appreciate the clear and compelling way this case study is presented Reed critiques the way in which political and economic dynamics not only threaten but convolute the intended benefits of community policing Although you may not always agree with the author s interpretations he has given us a compelling look at the potential for corruption of model programs Postmodern Criminology Dragan Milovanovic,1997 This collection of essays and reviews represents the most significant and comprehensive writing on Shakespeare s A Comedy of Errors Miola s edited work also features a comprehensive critical history coupled with a full bibliography and photographs of major productions of the play from around the world In the collection there are five previously unpublished essays The topics covered in these new essays are women in the play the play s debt to contemporary theater its critical and performance histories in Germany and Japan the metrical variety of the play and the distinctly modern perspective on the play as containing dark and disturbing elements To compliment these new essays the collection features significant scholarship and commentary on The Comedy of Errors that is published in obscure and difficultly accessible journals newspapers and other sources This collection brings together these essays for the first time Policing Change, Changing Police Otwin Marenin,2018-10-24 First published in 1996 In keeping with the other volumes in the Current Issues in Criminal justice series this anthology is a prime example of joining readability and scholarship Editor Otwin Marenin has thoughtfully commissioned and compiled an excellent group of essays on the role of police in changing societies by a very knowledgeable group of scholars Moreover Marenin has added substantially to the collection through his own insightful contributions Race, Gender, and Class in Criminology Martin D. Schwartz,Dragan Milovanovic,2019-07-18 First published in 2000 This series is dedicated to creative scholarly work in criminal justice and criminology Moreover we ask the authors to emphasize readability In this anthology Martin Schwartz and Dragan Milovanovic have managed to produce a work that is a combination of both They also did this in the face of difficulties presented by a variety of theoretical perspectives and methodologies The subject matter of this anthology race gender and class is a critical one for criminology Change and Reform in Law Enforcement Scott W. Phillips,Dilip K. Das,2016-10-26 This book provides broad exposure to a variety of policing reforms that have not received adequate attention It includes information and examples from different countries regarding efforts to change aspects of policing that are problematic or involve changes in the way crimes are committed Some of the efforts to improve the police are relatively recent i.e. using social media and some areas of policing that seem to require frequent attention i.e. working with the public

World Encyclopedia of Police Forces and Correctional Systems George Thomas Kurian, 2006 This fully updated version of the original 1989 edition of the World Encyclopedia of Police Forces and Correctional Systems describes the national law enforcement and correctional systems of more than 195 countries across the globe

, 1980 Current Issues in Victimology Research Laura J. Moriarty, Robert A. Jerin, 2007 Research on crime victims issues is a relatively new phenomenon in the criminal justice field With the birth of victimology in the late 1940s and early 1950s research focused on victim offender relationships and victim culpability It has only been in the last few decades that researchers have both studied the effects of crime upon the victim and analyzed the services provided to the crime victim In Current Issues in Victimology Research Moriarty and Jerin provide an understanding of the criminal act's impact upon individuals and society through recent research The book provides the criminal justice field with a foundation for grasping the complexities of crime victimization Current Issues in Victimology Research serves well as a textbook for a victimology course or as a companion to any traditional text book This new edition features the works of noted scholars and practitioners in the field who summarize the existing literature on victimology and its sub areas Many of the chapters represent topical areas not covered in other volumes and the original research contained in the chapters has not been published elsewhere Moreover each chapter represents a thorough comprehensive and up to date view of its subject matter The eighteen chapters address current issues in victimology research including victim services victim perceptions of crime severity effectiveness of batterer intervention programs the intimidated witness hate crimes adolescent victimization elder abuse youth internet victimization child fatality campus crime female stalkers missing persons and media responses repeat victimization curriculum development for victim assistance academies truancy corrections based restorative justice programs
