The Synergistic Classroom Corey

Campion,Aaron Angello,2020-10-16 Among the many challenges confronting the liberal arts today is a fundamental disconnect between the curricula that many institutions offer and the training that many students need Discipline specific models of teaching and learning can underprepare students for the kinds of interdisciplinary collaboration that employers now expect Although aware of these expectations and the need for change many small colleges and universities have struggled to translate interdisciplinarity into programs and curricula that better serve today s students Written by faculty engaged in the design and delivery of interdisciplinary courses programs and experiential learning opportunities in the small college setting The Synergistic Classroom addresses the many ways faculty can leverage their institutions small size and openness to pedagogical experimentation to overcome the challenges of limited institutional resources and enrollment concerns and better prepare students for life and work in the twenty first century Taken together the contributions in this volume invite reflection on a variety of important issues that attend the work of small college faculty committed to expanding student learning across disciplinary boundaries luminosoa org to learn more Between 1919 and 1961 pioneering Chinese American actress Anna May Wong established an enduring legacy that encompassed cinema theater radio and American television Born in Los Angeles yet with her US citizenship scrutinized due to the Chinese Exclusion Act Wong a defiant misfit innovated nuanced performances to subvert the racism and sexism that beset her life and career In this critical study of Wong s cross media and transnational career

Yiman Wang marshals extraordinary archival research and a multifocal approach to illuminate a lifelong labor of performance Viewing Wong as a performer and worker not just a star To Be an Actress adopts a feminist decolonial perspective to speculatively meet her as an interlocutor while inviting a reconsideration of racialized gendered and migratory
