Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Military Construction, Veterans Affairs, and Related Agencies, 2015 Builders' Weekly Guide , 1956 Building Better Public Services Tony Dean, 2015-08-13

For decades public service organizations have been under constant and growing pressure from citizens and stakeholders to provide more integrated effective and accountable programs and services Governments are beginning to acknowledge that they can't own every issue and increasingly look to collaboration networking and consultation at many levels as they design and develop policies programs and service delivery mechanisms Building Better Public Services explores the challenges facing public services in the 21st century including the need for systemic cultural change enhanced governance evidence informed policy and program design and shared approaches to service delivery Based on case studies and interviews supplemented by first person experience Building Better Public Services will take you inside the world of public services in Canada and the United Kingdom to explore capacity building successes and lessons learned The book offers insights into innovations that will inform public servants as they work to improve services for citizens and gives directional advice and observations on the importance of public services leadership an area rarely explored in business leadership literature An essential handbook on how to improve public policy and services This is not yet another book focused primarily on making government smaller or driven by an ideology of austerity It is rather grounded in a deep appreciation of the importance of public service to our quality of life and well being and of the great advantages Canada's professional nonpartisan public service affords Drawing on examples across Canada and internationally of what works and what does not Tony offers concrete recommendations for building a more citizen centred open collaborative public service Alex Himelfarb Former Clerk of the Privy Council Government of Canada and current Chair of WWF Canada and the Canadian Alliance to End Homelessness I hope Tony Dean's reflections bring a long overdue debate to a critical subject how to make public services work better Innovation in the public sector is a subject that cries out for real discussion and Tony has done us all a great favour by analysing these issues with commitment and flair It's not about cutting things it's about creativity and getting things done breaking down silos and making it happen Bob Rae Lawyer negotiator and Ontario's 21st Premier This is a book written by someone who knows the day to day challenges and reality of making governments work It should be read by both current and future politicians and public servants who want to improve their governments focus on outcomes for and with citizens Dean underpins this book with relentlessly wanting to achieve more He celebrates the passion commitment and innovation of public servants but is not blind to the need for change Ray Shostak International Government Adviser and former head of the Prime Minister s Delivery Unit and Director General Performance HM Government UK
