

Thank you distinguished faculty and staff and to the alumni association of Sta. Cruz Elementary School for inviting me over this memorable milestone. I am really honored, and humbled to be here this evening to share and inspire you. Being here this evening has forced me to look around inside me for something useful that I can share with you and I'm really grateful you gave me the chance.

Alumni homecoming is about reminiscing the past, enjoying the present and looking for future. We are gathered here this evening to commemorate every successful story the Sta. Cruz Elementary School (SCES) has publish since the beginning of its establishment. As a school, every school year has its own kind of success story, different kind of batch, and definitely a variety of memories. Remember the first time you stepped in the portals of SCES? Did you know what SCES can bring and can change into your lives? Try to ask yourself, how immense the school has influenced you on how you've become today. Try to evaluate and scan your conscious mind on how your elementary teachers taught you during your stay in SCES. I am 100% sure, that different memories will pop up your mind. Some maybe are terrific due to terror teachers, some are happy and fun times together with your classmates, you might even remember the first time your teacher scolded you in front of your classmate and you were embarrassed that time, or you did remember how you and your classmates miss or cut classes because you opted to play outside the school, or your first brawling experience happened in SCES. You will agree with me, that a part of your life was spent happily in SCES.

Seeing your former teachers around, enjoying your companion with your classmates or batch mates filled you heart today. Laughters and never ending stories can be heard everywhere, and I can see how happy and gay you are being with the people around you right now. Suffice to say that I believe that the vast majority of the alumni here strove to work to their potential, they aim high, they set their goals and for the most part, they not only achieved them, but in fact surpassed them. If not all of you, most of you here are already a successful in the endeavor you have chosen. Some maybe are now teachers, nurses, doctors, seamen, attorneys, engineers, business enthusiasts, political entities and the likes. Remember, you will not become who you are today and you will not be a successful as you are today without the help of SCES. That is a fact. It is on the SCES ground where you started to read, write, and count. We are all indebted to our elementary schools.

The purpose of having this alumni homecoming is consist of two important points. First, we celebrate this in order to get along with our elementary classmates, ask them how they are, and how their life are going through and enjoy every moments we have with every activity of this homecoming. Second, we are gathered here in order to fulfill our plans for the welfare of our beloved school. We are not only gathered here to enjoy, but to also think what we can do to SCES. Ask yourself what can you do for your school? It may not be as grand, or as expensive as you wish them to be for as long as it can bring help to the school and to the students in SCES. Pay tribute to each and every one especially to the teachers.

My warmest congratulations to the teachers for bringing out the best among these alumni. You have all left and will continue to leave an indelible legacy of excellence, achievement and fine ethos and tradition for generations to come. Your role has been hugely instrumental in molding our youth...our hope for the future. For the alumni officers, today's achievements may fade or even be forgotten. The applause may
