Survey of Tablet Computer Lending Programs in Libraries Primary Research Group, 2014 The 80 page study presents the results of a survey of 42 libraries with tablet lending programs or those just about to implement one. The report gives detailed data and commentary on how the programs were organized, financed and implemented and their impact on patrons and libraries. The report helps its readers to answer questions such as how many tablets do libraries maintain for loan? Which brands do they prefer and which are they planning to purchase in the future? How much have they spent on their tablet lending programs and plan to spend? Do they load their tablets with apps? If so, how do they choose them? How many tablets are lost to theft, Or to negligence or accidents? What is the fine for overdue tablets? What is the length of the lending period? What are the circulation figures for tablets? What has been the impact on other library resources such as a pre-existing laptop lending program? Or on use of the library's eBook collection? Which libraries do they view as models and what advice can they offer to peers? What services or training are offered to library patrons about how to use the tablets? Data in the report is broken out by library type (public library, public college, private college, special library), by size of library staff and size of stock of tablet loaned and other variables.

Survey of Academic Library Plans for Computer Workstations, Personal Computers, Laptops and other Computing Devices Primary Research Group, 2013 The 160 page study examines the purchasing plans of academic libraries for key computing infrastructure including plans for fixed workstations, personal computers, laptops, netbooks, tablets and other computing devices. The report helps to answer questions such as how are libraries and their sometime patrons in college information technology departments allocating funds among different types of computing devices? How has the mobile computing revolution affected plans for fixed workstation purchasing? What percentage of students use their own computers in the library and what percentage of them use the library's computers? What computer brands do libraries prefer? What are the official and real replacement cycles for computers? How many computers are reserved for staff use alone? To what extent are libraries concentrating computing resources in information commons or technology centers? What is the future of such centers? What are their budgets? How much are libraries allocating to computer and information literacy? How effective are these policies?

Survey of Public Library Plans for Workstations, Personal Computers, Laptops and other Computing Devices Primary Research Group, 2013 This report looks closely at the purchasing plans of public libraries for personal computers, workstations, laptops and other computing devices. The study looks at quantities demanded, money spent, brand preferences and deployment policies among other issues.
