The Purple and Blue Collection of Poems Michael Thomas, 2001-01-09 From the first inept but energetic poetic attempts of a 14 year old boy to the controlled but somewhat confused verses of a 32 year old college student this book is an emotional thrill ride that takes one from teenage lust to early middle age romanticism from a near denial of the Christian religion to the ponderance of all life as religion and from a seriousness in all human thought to a silliness that is the result of all this human thought This is a simple book of poetry that anyone can read without feeling his her sensibilities are being offended yet in the juxtaposing of early poems to the late poems one can realize that the poetry is not a simple process Poetry as it should grows with us as we grow and this book poignantly and energetically shows the maturation of a man a mind and a poet
