Border Visions Identity And Diaspora In Film:

Border Visions Jakub Kazecki, Karen A. Ritzenhoff, Cynthia J. Miller, 2013-06-13 Over the last several decades the boundaries of languages and national and ethnic identities have been shifting altering the notion of borders around the world. Borderland areas such as East and West Europe, the US, Mexican frontera and the Middle East serve as places of cultural transfer and exchange as well as arenas of violent conflict and segregation. As communities around the world merge across national borders new multi ethnic and multicultural countries have become ever more common. Border Visions Identity and Diaspora in Film offers an overview of global cinema that addresses borders as spaces of hybridity and change. In this collection of essays contributors examine how cinema portrays conceptions of borderlands informed by knowledge, politics, art, memory and lived experience and how these constructions contribute to a changing global community. These essays analyze a variety of international feature films and documentaries that focus on the lives, cultures and politics of borderlands. The essays discuss the ways in which conflicts and their resolutions occur in borderlands and how they are portrayed on film. The volume pays special attention to contemporary Europe where the topic of shifting border identities is one of the main driving forces in the processes of European unification. Among the filmmakers whose work is discussed in this volume are Fatih Akin, Montxo Armendáriz, Cary Fukunaga, Christoph Hochhäusler, Holger Jancke, Emir Kusturica, Laila Pakalnina, Alex Rivera, Larissa Shepitko, Andrea Staka, Elia Suleiman and István Szabó. A significant contribution to the dialogue on global cinema, Border Visions will be of interest to students and scholars of film but also to scholars in border studies, gender studies, sociology and political science.

Heroism and Gender in War Films Karen A. Ritzenhoff, 2014-08-07 Filmic constructions of war heroism have a profound impact on public perceptions of conflicts. Here contributors examine the ways motifs of gender and heroism in war films are used to justify ideological positions, shape the understanding of the military conflicts, support political agendas and institutions and influence collective memory.

Routledge Handbook of Diaspora Studies Robin Cohen, Carolin Fischer, 2018-09-03 The word diaspora has leapt from its previously confined use mainly concerned with the dispersion of Jews, Greeks, Armenians and Africans away from their natal homelands to cover the cases of many other ethnic groups, nationalities and religions. But this horizontal scattering of the word to cover the mobility of many groups to many destinations has been paralleled also by vertical leaps with the word diaspora being deployed to cover more and more phenomena and serve more and more objectives of different actors. With sections on debating the concept, complexity, home and home making, connections and critiques, the Routledge Handbook of Diaspora Studies is likely to remain an authoritative reference for some time. Each contribution includes a targeted list of references for further reading. The editors have carefully blended established scholars of diaspora with younger scholars looking at how diasporas are constructed from below. The adoption of a variety of conceptual perspectives allows for generalization, contrasts and comparisons between cases. In this exciting and authoritative collection over 40 scholars from many countries have explored the evolving use of the concept of
