Chicano and Chicana Art Jennifer A. González, C. Ondine Chavoya, Chon Noriega, Terezita Romo, 2019-01-15 This anthology provides an overview of the history and theory of Chicano/a art from the 1960s to the present, emphasizing the debates and vocabularies that have played key roles in its conceptualization. In Chicano and Chicana Art, which includes many of Chicano/a art's landmark and foundational texts and manifestos, artists, curators, and cultural critics trace the development of Chicano/a art from its early role in the Chicano civil rights movement to its mainstream acceptance in American art institutions. Postnationalism in Chicana/o Literature and Culture Ellie D. Hernández, 2010-01-01 In recent decades Chicana/o literary and cultural productions have dramatically shifted from a nationalist movement that emphasized unity to one that openly celebrates diverse experiences Charting this transformation Postnationalism in Chicana/o Literature and Culture looks to the late 1970s during a resurgence of global culture as a crucial turning point whose reverberations in twenty first century late capitalism have been profound Arguing for a postnationalism that documents the radical politics and aesthetic processes of the past while embracing contemporary cultural and sociopolitical expressions among Chicana/o peoples Hernández links the multiple forces at play in these interactions Reconfiguring text based analysis she looks at the comparative development of movements within women's rights and LGBTQI activist circles Incorporating economic influences this unique trajectory leads to a new conception of border studies as well rethinking the effects of a restructured masculinity as a symbol of national cultural transformation Ultimately positing that globalization has enhanced the emergence of new Chicana/o identities Hernández

ndez cultivates important new understandings of borderlands identities and postnationalism itself Conformity and Resistance in America Jacek Gutorow,Tomasz Lebiecki,2007 Conformity and Resistance in America a collection of thirty six essays from various fields of the US studies addresses the American culture as a space of fruitful tensions between the generally acknowledged canons and the projects that have questioned and subverted its very foundations and archives The book seeks to give justice to those areas of American culture that traditionally used to be treated as marginal and negligible but which in fact have added up to its uniqueness This includes various areas of American cultural and literary studies gender and minority studies themes of diasporic communities multi ethnic and multicultural society problems of global economy and of competing worldwide ideologies The papers included in this book try to answer pressing questions of the American identity in the post 9 11 world and do so by pointing to the recent oehumanities crisis as well as revealing moments of heterogeneity and discontinuity in the making of any culture Contrary to Samuel Huntington TM s dictum telling us of the inevitable oeclash of civilizations the following essays concentrate on what Edward W Said called oehumanism TM s sphere the sphere of antagonizing discourses and narratives which challenge rather than confirm the bases of their legitimacy Wavering between conformity and resistance the essays propose possible formulas for the new American identity as it strives to define and project itself into the new century
