Bosnia A Short History:

Bosnia Noel Malcolm, 1996-10 Vance Owen peace plan the tenuous resolution of the Dayton Accords and the efforts of the United Nations to keep the uneasy peace Kosovo Noel Malcolm, 1998 From the author of the critically acclaimed Bosnia A Short History comes a magisterial work of history TLS Re-envisioning Peacekeeping François Debrix, 1999 Time and again the United Nations has deployed peacekeeping missions in trouble spots around the globe Iraq Somalia Bosnia Rwanda Has peace ensured Have these missions in fact made any difference in the disorder and destruction they are purported to forestall Or are they as François Debrix contends an illusion more virtual peacekeeping than actual interventions in international affairs Re Envisioning Peacekeeping is a critical revisiting of UN interventions Addressing the question How do UN peacekeeping missions shape the contemporary vision of international affairs the book applies the notions of simulation and ideology to the practice and theory of international organization Debrix focuses on the media strategies that give UN missions the appearance of effectiveness and that promote liberal ideologies of governance Debrix shows how the UN missions in Iraq Somalia and Bosnia attempted to simulate a landscape of ordered international politics a New World Order by disseminating visual renditions of peaceful intervention and humanitarian assistance As a result of these sometimes elaborate efforts Debrix finds the UN peacekeeping missions of the past decade represent a study in visual simulation which has nothing to do with actual matters of international life in the 1990s Response to Noel Malcom's Book Kosovo: a Short History Milorad Ekmečić, 2000 Corporations, Global Governance, and Post-conflict Reconstruction Peter Davis, 2013 In the past two decades the international community has shown an increased proclivity to engage in programmes of post conflict reconstruction in the aftermath of wars During the same period increased globalisation has meant that multinational companies have grown greatly in size and influence and have begun to challenge existing notions of governance at a global level Here Peter Davis explores the reconstruction processes that have taken place in Azerbaijan Bosnia and Rwanda Based on extensive field work as well as existing literature this book plots the recovery of these countries from conflict and examines in detail the role that international companies have played in that process The book also explores how companies impacts on reconstruction are governed both by the companies themselves and by the host government and international agencies managing the rebuilding process A Muslim Reformist in Communist Yugoslavia Sejad Mekić, 2016-07-01 A Muslim Reformist in Communist Yugoslavia examines the Islamic modernist thought of Husein ozo a prominent Balkan scholar Born at a time when the external challenges to the Muslim world were many and its internal problems both complex and overwhelming ozo made it his goal to reinterpret the teachings of the Qur'an and had the prophetic tradition to a generation for whom the truths and realities of Islam had fallen into disuse As a Muslim scholar who lived and worked in a European communist multi cultural and multi religious society Husein ozo and his work present us with a particularly exciting account through which to examine the innovative interpretations of Islam For example through a critical analysis of ozo s most significant fatw s and other relevant materials this book examines the extent of the inherent flexibility of the Islamic law and its ability to respond to Muslim interests in different socio political conditions Since ozo s writings in general and his fatw s in particular have continued to be published in the Balkan lands up to the present this monograph should help shed some light on certain assumptions underlying modern Islamic thought and consciousness found in the region

Kosovo Noel Malcolm,2000-09-01 Reveals firsthand the devastating story of the city of Pec the site of the worst atrocities in the Kosovo War With a new introduction by the author A contested region of Serbia bordered by Albania and Macedonia Kosovo was left out of the Bosnian peace agreement of 1995 For the 2 2 million Albanians living in Kosovo this sparked the abandonment of a nonviolent independence movement in favor of armed struggle The tinderbox Balkan province of Kosovo thus remains in limbo as Albanians urgently rally their forces against Serbian rule Exemplifying once again the best of narrative analytical history Noel Malcolm here provides the definitive story of Kosovo from its origins to its current state of unrest Kosovo clarifies the troubled past and present of this crucial region in a readable and neatly compressed style

From Peoples into Nations John Connelly,2020-01-21 A sweeping narrative history of Eastern Europe from the late eighteenth century to today In the 1780s the Habsburg monarch Joseph II decreed that henceforth German would be the language of his realm His intention was to forge a unified state from his vast and disparate possessions but his action had the opposite effect catalyzing the emergence of competing nationalisms among his Hungarian Czech and other subjects who feared that their languages and cultures would be lost In this sweeping narrative history of Eastern Europe since the late eighteenth century John Connelly connects the stories of the region s diverse peoples telling how at a profound level they have a shared understanding of the past An ancient history of invasion and migration made the region into a cultural landscape of extraordinary variety a patchwork in which Slovaks Bosnians and countless others live shoulder to shoulder and where calls for national autonomy often have had bloody effects among the interwoven ethnicities Connelly traces the rise of nationalism in Polish Austro Hungarian and Ottoman lands the creation of new states after the First World War and their later absorption by the Nazi Reich and the Soviet Bloc the reemergence of democracy and separatist movements after the collapse of communism and the recent surge of populist politics throughout the region Because of this common experience of upheaval East Europeans are people with an acute feeling for the precariousness of history they know that nations are not eternal but come and go sometimes they disappear From Peoples into Nations tells their story
