Assisted by Danielle Colby who helps out at Antique Archaeology Wolfe and Fritz buy on the cheap and then sell to dealers art directors interior designers or anyone looking for a little bit of authentic Americana. The three now share their secrets to finding hidden gems offering helpful hints that will show what average Americans can do to find the treasures that await them. From American Pickers Guide to Picking Junk is Beautiful. When we knock on a door 90 percent of the time the things we find are junk. But we don't care about the odds a picker never turns down an opportunity no matter where it is. We've picked pickup trucks. We've picked flat beds. We've picked dumpsters. We even picked a Mercury Sable. We're looking for the unusual the impossible the funky the different the bizarre things we have never seen before. And we'll go anywhere we have to go to find it. No location is off limits to a hard core picker. And there's plenty of things to be found at antique stores, thrift and consignment shops, flea markets, estate sales and swap meets and a lot of the tips in this book apply to finding treasures at these joints. But that's not really the kind of picking we do anymore. We look outside the box to find our junk a word we use almost like a term of endearment to us junk is beautiful.
