Amma Dula Dula Kathalu:

Arab Women Writers Radwa Ashour, Ferial Ghazoul, Hasna Reda-Mekdashy, 2008-11-01 Arab women's writing in the modern age began with A'isha al Taymuriya, Warda al Yaziji, Zaynab Fawwaz and other nineteenth century pioneers in Egypt and the Levant. This unique study first published in Arabic in 2004 looks at the work of those pioneers and then traces the development of Arab women's literature through the end of the twentieth century and also includes a meticulously researched comprehensive bibliography of writing by Arab women. In the first section in nine essays that cover the Arab Middle East from Morocco to Iraq and Syria to Yemen critics and writers from the Arab world examine the origin and evolution of women's writing in each country in the region addressing fiction, poetry, drama and autobiographical writing. The second part of the volume contains bibliographical entries for over 1,200 Arab women writers from the last third of the nineteenth century through 1999. Each entry contains a short biography and a bibliography of each author's published works. This section also includes Arab women's writing in French and English as well as a bibliography of works translated into English. With its broad scope and extensive research, this book is an indispensable resource for anyone interested in Arabic literature, women's studies or comparative literature. Contributors: Emad Abu Ghazi, Radwa Ashour, Mohammed Berrada, Ferial J. Ghazoul, Subhi Hadidi, Haydar Ibrahim Yumna al-Idrisi, Su'ad al-Mani, Iman al-Qadi, Amina Rachid, Huda al-Sadda, Hatim al-Sakr.

Explores how writers, filmmakers and artists have attempted to reckon with the legacy of a devastating war. The Iran-Iraq War was the longest conventional war of the 20th century. The memory of it may have faded in the wake of more recent wars in the region but the harrowing facts remain: over one million soldiers and civilians dead, millions more permanently displaced and disabled and an entire generation marked by prosthetic implants and teenage martyrdom. These same facts have been instrumentalized by agendas both foreign and domestic but also aestheticized defamiliarized readdressed and reconciled by artists writers and filmmakers across an array of identities linguistic Arabic Persian Kurdish religious Shiite Sunni atheist and political Iranian Iraqi internationalist Official discourses have unsurprisingly tried to dominate the process of production and distribution of war narratives In doing so they have ignored and silenced other voices Centering on novels films memoirs and poster art that gave aesthetic expression to the Iran Iraq War the essays gathered in this volume present multiple perspectives on the war s most complex and underrepresented narratives These scholars do not naively claim to represent an authenticity lacking in official discourses of the war but rather they call into question the notion of authenticity itself Finding deciding upon and creating a language that can convey any sort of truth at all collective national or private is the major preoccupation of the texts and critiques in this diverse collection
