Monsters, Catastrophes and the Anthropocene Gaia Giuliani, 2020-10-29 Monsters Catastrophes and the Anthropocene A Postcolonial Critique explores European and Western imaginaries of natural disaster mass migration and terrorism through a postcolonial inquiry into modern conceptions of monstrosity and catastrophe This book uses established icons of popular visual culture in sci fi doomsday and horror films and TV series as well as in images reproduced by the news media to help trace the genealogy of modern fears to ontologies and logics of the Anthropocene By logics of the Anthropocene the book refers to a set of principles based on ontologies of exploitation extermination and natural resource exhaustion processes determining who is worthy of benefiting from value extraction and being saved from the catastrophe and who is expendable Fears for the loss of isolation from the unworthy and the expendable are investigated here as originating anxieties against migrants invasions terrorist attacks and planetary catastrophes in a thread that weaves together re emerging past nightmares and future visions This book will be of great interest to students and academics of the Environmental Humanities Human and Cultural Geography Political Philosophy Psychosocial Studies Postcolonial Studies and Critical Race and Whiteness Studies Gender Studies and Postcolonial Feminist Studies Cultural Studies Sociology Cultural Anthropology Cinema Studies and Visual Studies

Transforming the Screen, 1950-1959 Peter Lev, 2003 Covering a tumultuous period of the 1950s this work explores the divorce of movie studios from their theater chains the panic of the blacklist era the explosive emergence of science fiction as the dominant genre and the rise of television and Hollywood's response with widescreen spectacles

The Child in Post-Apocalyptic Cinema Debbie Olson, 2015-03-06 The child in many post apocalyptic films occupies a unique space within the narrative a space that oscillates between death and destruction faith and hope The Child in Post Apocalyptic Cinema interrogates notions of the child as a symbol of futurity and also loss By exploring the ways children function discursively within a dystopian framework we may better understand how and why traditional notions of childhood are repeatedly tethered to sites of adult conflict and disaster a connection that often functions to reaffirm the rightness of past systems of social order This collection features critical articles that explore the role of the child character in post apocalyptic cinema including classic recent and international films approached from a variety of theoretical methodological and cultural perspectives

Contemporary American Science Fiction Film Terence McSweeney, Stuart Joy, 2022-02-21 Contemporary American Science Fiction Film explores and interrogates a diverse variety of popular and culturally relevant American science fiction films made in the first two decades of the new millennium offering a ground breaking investigation of the impactful role of genre cinema in the modern era Placing one of the most popular and culturally resonant American film genres broadly within its rich social historical industrial and political context the book interrogates some of the defining critical debates of the era via an in depth analysis of a range of important films An international team of authors draw on case studies from across the science fiction genre to examine what these films can tell us about the time period how the films themselves connect to the social and political context how the fears and anxieties they portray resonate beyond the screen and how the genre responds to the shifting coordinates of the Hollywood film industry Offering new insights and perspectives on the cinematic science fiction genre this volume will appeal primarily to scholars and students of film television cultural and media studies as well as anyone interested in science fiction and speculative film

Cinema of/for the Anthropocene Katarzyna Paszkiewicz,Andrea Ruthven,2025-01-31 Cinema of for the Anthropocene sheds new light on the question of how films can allow us to resituate ourselves within what is known today as the Anthropocene The authors address this question through a variety of disciplines and theoretical perspectives from film and cultural studies new materialisms critical posthumanism and animal studies critical race theory and Indigenous media studies to gender and sexuality studies with a primary focus on films produced in the United States and Canada The volume moves beyond the mere acknowledgment of the devastating damage inflicted during the Anthropocene to think about new ways of inhabiting the world through concepts such as affect response ability and more than human kinship The writers in this collection respond to its invitation by addressing a range of genres and modes thus complicating the apocalyptic discourses which have typically been central to the studies on the Anthropocene in addition to dystopian films the volume discusses animated films Hollywood biopics climate change documentaries experimental film comedy horror sci fi as well as disease thriller and survival film Taken together the chapters offer cross disciplinary readings of the cinema of for the Anthropocene showing ways in which it can help us re orient our thinking to make sense of the current age and address the planetary scale environmental catastrophe This volume will appeal to researchers and students in film studies cultural studies and the burgeoning field of environmental humanities

Foundations of Environmental Sustainability Larry Rockwood,Ronald Stewart,Thomas Dietz,2008-06-04 This book reviews and analyzes the period roughly from the 1950s to the present when the environment became an issue as important as economic growth or war and peace to assess the current situation and begin planning for the challenges that lie ahead Most people are aware of both the environmental destruction taking place around the world and of the specter of climate change The devastation of New Orleans by hurricane Katrina illustrates the potential for disaster when climate change is combined with the mismanaged environmental policy How did we get to this point What has been done and what can be done to avoid future environmental disasters Thirty two contributing chapter authors among them one of the principal drafters of the National Environmental Policy Act Chief of the African Environment Division and the World Bank Vice President of the Center for Conservation Innovation at the World Wildlife Fund President of the Zoological Society of London former President of the Ecological Society of America use their unique authoritative perspective to review the evolution of environmental science and policy in the past half century Each author describes the evolution of environmental science and policy in the past half century and consider the challenges of the future Although the authors of this book come from various fields they have followed paths that have generally converged on the concept of sustainability

This book attempts to define what sustainability is how we can achieve it and what the prospects for sustainability in the future are Video Movie Guide 1995 Mick Martin, Marsha Porter, 1994 The Video Games Guide Matt Fox, 2012-12-01

Annihilation Alien Invasion 4: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Annihilation Alien Invasion 4 : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
