Benjamin Specht:

Romantic Prose Fiction Gerald Ernest Paul Gillespie, Manfred Engel, Bernard Dieterle, 2008 In this volume a team of three dozen international experts presents a fresh picture of literary prose fiction in the Romantic age seen from cross cultural and interdisciplinary perspectives The work treats the appearance of major themes in characteristically Romantic versions the power of Romantic discourse to reshape imaginative writing and a series of crucial reactions to the impact of Romanticism on cultural life down to the present both in Europe and in the New World Through its combination of chapters on thematic generic and discursive features Romantic Prose Fiction achieves a unique theoretical stance by considering the opinions of primary Romantics and their successors not as guiding truths by which to define the permanent meaning of Romanticism but as data of cultural history that shed important light on an evolving civilization SPECIAL OFFER 30% discount for a complete set order 5 vols The Romanticism series in the Comparative History of Literatures in European Languages is the result of a remarkable international collaboration The editorial team coordinated the efforts of over 100 experts from more than two dozen countries to produce five independently conceived yet interrelated volumes that show not only how Romanticism developed and spread in its principal European homelands and throughout the New World but also the ways in which the affected literatures in reaction to Romanticism have redefined themselves on into Modernism A glance at the index of each volume quickly reveals the extraordinary richness of the series total contents Romantic Irony sets the broader experimental parameters of comparison by concentrating on the myriad expressions of irony as one of the major impulses in the Romantic philosophical and artistic revolution and by combining cross cultural and interdisciplinary studies with special attention also to literatures in less widely diffused language streams Romantic Drama traces creative innovations that deeply altered the understanding of genre at large fed popular imagination through vehicles like the opera and laid the foundations for a modernist theater of the absurd Romantic Poetry demonstrates deep patterns and a sharing of crucial themes of the revolutionary age which underlie the lyrical expression that flourished in so many languages and environments Nonfictional Romantic Prose assists us in coping with the vast array of writings from the personal and intimate sphere to modes of public discourse including Romanticism's own self commentary in theoretical statements on the arts society life the sciences and more Nor are the discursive dimensions of imaginative literature neglected in the closing volume Romantic Prose Fiction where the basic Romantic themes and story types the romance novel novella short story and other narrative forms are considered throughout Europe and the New World This enormous realm is seen not just in terms of Romantic theorizing but in the light of the impact of Romantic ideas and narration on later generations As an aid to readers the introduction to Romantic Prose Fiction explains the relationships among the volumes in the series and carries a listing of their tables of contents in an appendix No other series exists comparable to these volumes which treat the entirety of Romanticism as a cultural happening across the whole breadth of the Old and New Worlds and thus render a complex picture of European spiritual strivings in the late eighteenth and the nineteenth centuries a heritage still very close to our age

State of New York Supreme Court , Myth in the Modern Novel Liisa Steinby, 2023-03-20 Myth in the Modern Novel Imagining the Absolute posits a twofold thesis First although Modernity is regarded as an era dominated by science and rational thought it has in fact not relinquished the hold of myth a more primitive form of thought which is difficult to reconcile with modern rationality Second some of the most important statements as to the reconcilability of myth and Modernity are found in the work of certain prominent novelists This book offers a close examination of the work of eleven writers from the late eighteenth century to the beginning of the twenty first representing German French American Czech and Swedish literature The analyses of individual novels reveal a variety of intriguing views of myth in Modernity and offer an insight into the modernizing transformations myth has undergone when applied in the modern novel The study shows the presence of the subconscious the mythic layer in modern western culture and how this has been dealt with in novelistic literature

Demystifying Bilingualism Silke Jansen, Sonja Higuera del Moral, Jessica Stefanie Barzen, Pia Reimann, Markus Opolka, 2021-12-02 This book analyses changing views on bilingualism in Cognitive Psychology and explores their socio cultural embeddedness It offers a new innovative perspective on the debate on possible cognitive disadvantages in bilinguals arguing that it is biased by popular language myths which often manifest themselves in the form of metaphors Since its beginnings Cognitive Psychology has consistently modelled the coexistence between languages in the brain using metaphors of struggle conflict and competition However an ideological shift from nationalist and monolingual ideologies to the celebration of bilingualism under multicultural and neoliberal ideologies in the course of the 20th century fostered opposing interpretations of language coexistence in the brain and its effects on bilinguals at different moments in time This book will be of interest to students and scholars of Cognitive Psychology Psycholinguistics Multilingualism and Applied Linguistics Cognitive and Computational Linguistics and Critical Metaphor Analysis

Literary Canon Formation as Nation-Building in Central Europe and the Baltics , 2021-02-15 In this volume seventeen scholars from Estonia Hungary Lithuania Poland and Slovakia present their research on the formation and transformation of national literary canons as a practice of nation building in Central Europe and the Baltics The articles focus on the shaping of national identities through literature and analyze the establishment of literary canons by means of language the role of national poets and similar topics Case studies of so called minor literatures reveal common tendencies in the structure of many national canons as well as specific responses and creative decisions in nation building processes This volume rethinks the relations between literature and nationalism from the 19th century to present times and contributes to the field of studies of historical development of nationalism Contributors are Olga Bartosiewicz Nikolaev Renata Beli ov Ramun Bleizgien Pawe Bukowiec Anna R Burzy ska Judit Dobry Gergely F rízs Katre Kikas Aist Ku inskien Helena Markowska Fulara Rados aw Okulicz Kozaryn Jurga Sadauskien Vaidas eferis Viktorija eina Brigita Spei yt Jagoda Wierzejska and Krystyna Zabawa
