14 Regional Convention Not For Kids:

International Child Labor Problems, 1993 The African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child: A Commentary Julia Sloth-Nielsen, Elvis Fokala, Godfrey Odongo, 2025-01-01 Since its adoption in July 1990 and entry into force in November 1999 the African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child African Children's Charter has become a key treaty within the African human rights system governing children's rights in Africa To date 51 out of 55 African Union member states have ratified the African Children's Charter which demonstrates a growing commitment to respect protect and promote the rights of children There is no doubt that the Charter since entering into force has significantly contributed to the development of standards and practice related to children in Africa This comprehensive commentary on the African Children's Charter the first of its kind provides a systematic analysis of each article of the Charter tracing the origin of the rights highlighting and explaining unique African concepts and normative standards featured in the Charter The Commentary aims to be a one stop shop for anyone interested in protecting and promoting children's rights in Africa such as researchers teachers students practitioners policy makers and activists Authored by an array of contributors steeped in African jurisprudence and human rights values comprising 38 discrete chapters it constitutes an essential and contemporary guide to the legal understanding of the various provisions the Charter provides for It is edited by three African scholars prominent in the field of children's rights in Africa Prof Julia Sloth Nielsen Prof Elvis Fokala and Dr Godfrey Odongo This Commentary is the second in the PULP series of Commentaries on African human rights law Global Pathways to Abolishing Physical Punishment Joan E. Durrant, Anne B. Smith, 2010-12-20 This book describes the unfolding of a global phenomenon the legal prohibition of physical punishment of children Until thirty years ago this near universal practice was considered appropriate necessary and a parental right But a paradigm shift in conceptions of childhood has led to a global movement to redefine it as violence and as a violation of children's rights Today many countries have prohibited it in all settings including the home This remarkable shift reflects profound cultural changes in thinking about children and their development parent child relationships and the role of the state in family life It has involved actors in many sectors including academia government non governmental organizations and children themselves Documenting the stories of countries that have either prohibited corporal punishment of children or who are moving in that direction this volume will serve as a sourcebook for scholars and advocates around the world who are interested in the many dimensions of physical punishment and its elimination

Regional Conventions on Protection of Human Rights Louis B. Sohn, 1973 The Young Judean, 1927 SDGs in the Americas and Caribbean Region Walter Leal Filho, Noé Aguilar-Rivera, Bruno Borsari, Paulo R. B. de Brito, Baltazar Andrade Guerra, 2023-08-31 This volume provides an overview of the ways sustainable development issues as a whole and the SDGs in particular are perceived and practiced in a variety of countries in the Latin America and Caribbean region It also discusses the extent to which its many socio economic problems hinder progresses towards the pursuit of a sustainable future and documents successful experiences from across the region This book is part of the 100 papers to accelerate the implementation of the UN Sustainable Development Goals initiative

Digitalization and child labour in agriculture

Termeer, E., Vos, B., Bolchini, A., Van Ingen, E., Abrokwa, K., 2023-06-08 This paper is the product of a collaboration between the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations FAO and Wageningen University and Research WUR to explore the potential application of innovative technologies to improve data collection and risk estimation of child labour in the cocoa sector In particular it assesses the potential role of blockchain technology and Geographic Information Systems GIS in collecting and sharing data on cocoa growing areas in Ghana and how this could contribute to monitoring and ultimately preventing child labour in those areas During an inception mission undertaken by FAO in Ghana open consultations with various stakeholders in the cocoa sector led to the identification of a number of Key Data Elements KDEs to inform the design of a blockchain system with the objective to facilitate real time cost efficient and collaborative monitoring of the risk of child labour in cocoa growing areas in Ghana WUR was commissioned by the FAO to further explore the potential application of blockchain technology and GIS to monitor selected KDEs related to the root causes of child labour in Ghana Despite decades of interventions since the ratification of the Harkin Engel Protocol in 2001 to eliminate child labour in the cocoa sectors of Cote d'Ivoire and Ghana the latest progress report shows child labour in this sector is increasing rather than decreasing Sadhu et al 2020 This trend is concerning given the detrimental effects of child labour on children's lives education and health and the perpetuated cycle of poverty as a result To break this trend it is necessary to expand and improve current methods of tracking the incidence of child labour monitoring and explore more sustainable ways to support rural families to keep children out of child labour prevention To that end technology digitalization and digital innovations have a role in poverty reduction and improving living standards in developing countries however political and socio economic problems can hinder these technological fixes With smallholder cocoa producers being the most vulnerable actors within this value chain the implementation of technological monitoring systems is not a clear cut route Participation and engagement depend not only on the perception of the advantages to farmers and community but also on issues that impact the adoption and use of information and communication technologies ICT For example availability affordability and literacy and effective use

Council of Europe, The Oklahoma Teacher, 1940 International Law Concerning Child Civilians in Armed Conflict

Jenny Kuper, 1997 Each year many thousands of child civilians are killed injured or otherwise physically and psychologically harmed as a result of armed conflicts There is a considerable body of international law which aims to minimise the harm inflicted on these children and yet it is little known or observed This book is the first major international legal text to focus exclusively on child civilians It addresses three main questions 1 what are the precise rules incorporated in the pertinent body of law and what are its implementation mechanisms 2 how effective is it with reference to recent conflicts involving Iraq in helping to achieve some protection for child civilians and 3 can it be rendered more effective The book concludes by proposing a number of strategies to strengthen the impact of the applicable law As the first detailed analysis of the surprisingly large body of law relevant to the treatment of child civilians this book is an important contribution to a topical and highly charged human rights issue Bulletin International Labour Office, International Labour Organization, 2005 Series A Information on the activities of the ILO texts adopted by the International Labour Conference and other official documents Series B Reports of the Committee on Freedom of Association of the Governing Body of the ILO and related material The Budget [a Monthly Magazine to Advocate Economy and Efficiency in the Business of Government] Walter Gray Miller, 1922 Ohio Woman Voter ,1928 The Coal Trade Journal ,1894 The Public ,1902 The Public Louis Freeland Post, Alice Thacher Post, Stoughton Cooley, 1911 Webster's New International Dictionary of the English Language Paul Worthington Carhart, Thomas Albert Knott, William Allan Neilson, 1934 The Woman Citizen ,1925 Office Appliances ,1930 Automobile Topics ,1930
