Labyrinths Of Lunacy:

Sanity Trilogy Anita Alexandra, 2002-09 Labyrinths of Lunacy Anita Alexandra, 2007-02 Labyrinths of Lunacy unravels a dramatically raw tale laced with humor of a young woman named Angela Sharp who is in search of a consistent sense of herself and a direction in life that has been constantly thwarted by her relationship with her blood family. Encouraged by her gorgeous guide Remiel, Angela avails herself to the unconventional combination of acupuncture and hypnotherapy of Dr Elizabeth Brockton. Descending into the black holes of her memory banks, Angela stumbles upon the secrets of mental illness in her family history, heart-breaking conclusions about her marriage to Steven, and is plunged into the honest depths of her scintillating sensual obsession with Chad O Connor. Armed with her self-protective humor, a resiliently courageous nature, her friendship with the entertaining Clarissa, along with the tireless patience of Dr Brockton, Angela traverses her memories in a way that alters what might permanently defeat another into something hopeful and inspiringly transformative. Penumbra Mr. Vinod Asudani, This book contains 57 English poems from the pen of multilingual poet who has already established himself as one of the significant contemporary literary voices in Sindhi and Hindi languages in Indian sub-continent. The poems included in this book deal with a wide range of topics. Some of the poems like biodiversity in search of Bahuguna and broken toys portray sensibility of the disabled. They authentically depict anguish, agony, and perspective of a disabled person. Many other things such as disillusionment, fragmentary existence, self-alienation, love, romance, social criticism, to appear and reappear in different poems. All these things have been approached from different angles and they unfold in the poems in an unusual manner, triggering emotional and intellectual response from the readers. Poems included in this volume make readers reconsider and redefine many of their notions about affection, relationship, myths, social reality, violence, governance, and so on. Poetry is characterized by psychological realism; many of the poems operate at different levels and each level is made up of many layers; hence sometimes they make heavy demand on intellect and sensibility of readers to fully decipher their connotation. Why do interiors of houses mimic nature, the wallpapers and curtains, flowers in vases, a vaporizer in the bathroom? Why do we so often connect our childhoods with gardens? Why has the myth of a lost Eden been so ubiquitous and so formative? The Green Fuse: Essays in Making Sense of Gardens explores our deep-rooted impulses to create gardens, examining them through the lenses of history, religion, nostalgia, and myth. It connects gardens with the other arts, painting music literature and theater and contemplates their intellectual and philosophical significance Blending lyrical reflections with research The Green Fuse offers an unusually wide ranging and thoughtful perspective on gardens and why we make them It will be ideal for all readers interested in gardening and its cultural implications De Quincey David Masson,1899
